

KentuckyHistoricalSociety

Teacher Professional Development Intern Summer 2013 Undergraduate Intern Education

The Kentucky Historical Society (KHS) is a state agency and membership organization that is fully accredited by the American Alliance of Museums. The KHS mission is to engage people in the exploration of the Commonwealth's diverse heritage by providing connections to the past, perspective on the present and inspiration for the future.

This position will assist the project supervisor with teacher professional development initiatives in the summer of 2013. The National Endowment for the Humanities Landmarks of American History and Culture grant allows 80 selected teachers (40 per session) to learn about the unique and important role Kentucky and the border states played in the Civil War. Sessions will be held June 23-29 and July 14-20 in Frankfort and include trips to historic sites in Kentucky. The candidate will also assist the project supervisor with the annual Kentucky History Education Conference and field study bus trip (July 11-12).

Requirements: Undergraduate student, history major preferred. Project is approximately 300 hours over a period of nine weeks:

- Project work begins – May 28
- First week of sessions – June 23-29
- Kentucky History Education Conference and field study bus trip – July 11-12
- Second week of sessions – July 14-20
- Project completion – July 26

This is a temporary position with a stipend of $2,500 based in Frankfort, Ky. Employee benefits are not available. Housing is not provided.

To apply, email application, cover letter and resume to phyllis.gilman@ky.gov. No phone calls please. Equal Opportunity Employer M/F/D. Application and other KHS internships are available at www.history.ky.gov. Application deadline is March 15, 2013.